

Dear SNUCMAA,

My name is Joanna Ji and I am currently a junior studying speech pathology at NYU. I am writing this letter to express my amazement and show my gratitude for being a scholarship recipient of this competitive

...for the million little ways you make a difference. ♡♡

scholarship. I know I may be very lacking, but thank you for choosing to support me financially and I plan to use this golden opportunity to advance my career as a future speech pathologist and to give back to my community one day. Thank you for making a difference in my education and my life.

sincerely,
Joanna Ji